Fourth of July Festival Announces Shine & Show Classic Car Show
Classic Car Enthusiasts Invited to Participate

Southport, N.C. - Cape Fear Cruisers will host a car show along the downtown waterfront in Southport, N.C. from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. along Bay Street on July 4th.

Cape Fear Cruisers Car Club is a non-profit organization located in coastal Southport on the Cape Fear River. The Club's purpose is to develop and maintain good relationships within the community by offering assistance to local charitable organizations and individuals in need while enjoying the fellowship of other car enthusiasts. Club members share a common interest of collecting, restoring, modifying and owning automobiles.

Cape Fear Cruisers, Shine & Show Classic Car Show has been a staple on the Fourth of July Festival calendar for many years. Following the parade route prior to the official start, the cars will make their way to the waterfront on July 4th, where they will remain on display throughout the day. The Club invites non-club members and members to showcase their classic cars on the holiday. No registration is required for this event. Non-club members and members are invited to showcase their classic cars on the holiday. Those who want to participate should gather at the Duke Entergy parking lot on Hwy 133 beginning at 9:00a.m. A police escort will lead the Cruisers from the parking lot to Bay Street at approximately 10:00a.m. If you have questions about showcasing your classic car, please call Dave Lippincott (910) 253-9913.

Contact Dave Lippincott at (910) 253-9913 for questions.
